36th Annual Midwest Salute to the Arts!

As the Mayor of Fairview Heights, it is my honor to welcome all of you to the "36th Annual Midwest Salute to the Arts".

The Salute to the Arts is one of the oldest and longest running art shows in the Midwest.

While you are in our city, in addition to enjoying the amazing fine arts created by craftsman and leaders in their field, we invite you to enjoy other amenities that Fairview Heights has to offer.

Our city truly offers something for everyone. There are seven parks, our REC complex and an abundance of restaurants and shopping areas. Whether it is an enjoyable breakfast, a sweet treat, midday or evening meal, or shopping for that special gift or something for yourself you can find it in our city. If you plan to stay at one of our many hotels throughout our city, we hope that you have a pleasant stay.

On behalf all of our elected officials, local businesses, residents and myself, we thank you for taking time to come out and enjoy this year's Midwest Salute to the Arts.

Sincerely,

*Mark T. Kupsky, Mayor
City of Fairview Heights*
