

From the office of the Mayor
Mark T. Kupsky

10025 Bunkum Road ♦ Fairview Heights, Illinois 62208 ♦ Phone: (618) 489-2000 ♦

Welcome to the 38th Annual Midwest Salute to the Arts!

It is my pleasure to welcome you to Fairview Heights for one of our community's favorite traditions. Each year, this event brings together talented artists, art enthusiasts, families, and visitors from throughout the region to celebrate creativity, craftsmanship, and the arts. We are grateful you've chosen to spend your weekend with us.

Since 1988, the Midwest Salute to the Arts has grown into one of the Midwest's premier fine arts festivals. Whether you're admiring beautiful artwork, visiting with the artists, or finding that special piece to take home, I hope you'll enjoy all this event has to offer.

As I welcome you during my final year as Mayor, I want to thank everyone who has helped make this festival such a success over the years. Events like this showcase what makes Fairview Heights such a special place—a community that values the arts, supports local businesses, and takes pride in bringing people together.

While you're here, I encourage you to explore everything Fairview Heights has to offer. Spend some time in our beautiful parks, The REC, enjoy our outstanding shopping, relax at one of our welcoming hotels, and dine at one of our many excellent restaurants. Whether you're here for the day or the entire weekend, we hope you'll feel right at home.

On behalf of the Fairview Heights City Council, our city staff, and our residents, thank you for joining us. We appreciate your support of the arts and hope you have a wonderful weekend making memories with family and friends.

Thank you for visiting Fairview Heights, and enjoy the 38th Annual Midwest Salute to the Arts!

Warm regards,

Mark T. Kupsky
Mayor, City of Fairview Heights